

Dear Commissioners,

Hollywood continues to fill family evening television time with sex and violence. The language is profane and Hollywood thumbs their nose at all of America. If we don't like it, Hollywood says "Just change the channel." So I do not let my three look at television. Only PaxTV is offering family friendly TV. Can you do something about all this sex and violence.

Thanks,
Peter Rauschenbach